When is the Live and Local Event Series?

The series of events will run across Saturday 20 and Sunday 21 March 2021.

Is the Live and Local Event Series replacing The Waterfront Festival?

Yes, the Live and Local Event Series will replace The Waterfront Festival. Due to the current COVID-19 restrictions, it was not possible to run an outdoor event on the scale of The Waterfront Festival.

Is there a fee to attend?

It is free to attend the Live and Local event series. There will be costs for any items you purchase, such as items from food vendors or market stalls and amusement rides.

Can I move between the different sites throughout the weekend?

Yes, you will be able to move around our event sites and other locations throughout the weekend. You will need to register via QR code to each location you enter, much like if you were going to a restaurant and then a movie.

Will there be food and drinks available?

There will be a range of food and beverage options at these events with different vendors at each site. A list of vendors will be available on the Discover Frankston website.

What rides will be at the foreshore?

Rides and Amusements are located at McCombs Reserve. Rides will stop operation at 8pm on Saturday and Sunday; ticket sales will finish 15 minutes prior to last rides each day. For a complete list of rides please visit the Discover Frankston website.

What performances will be at each event site?

Each event site will have different performances each day. A full list of the stage programs can be found on the Discover Frankston website.

What COVID Safe measures will be present at this event?

In-line with our COVID Safe Plan for the event all patrons must adhere to the below terms and conditions:

- Masks must be worn in line with Chief Health Officer directives at the time of the event
- All patrons must sign in via a QR code registration upon entering a Live and Local event site
- 1.5m physical distancing must be adhered to at all times, including when waiting in queues and moving through the event sites
- If you are feeling unwell you should not attend the event and go and get tested
- If you are awaiting a test result or have been asked to self-isolate or quarantine by the Victorian Department of Health you cannot enter the event site
- Each event site will have a capacity limit, which will dictate how many people can be in that area. Please respect any directions given to you by event staff or security in the event capacity limits have been met
- There will be increased cleaning and sanitisation throughout our event sites, with a focus on high-touch points. Deep cleaning will occur between each event day
- Hand sanitiser stations will be positioned throughout the event sites
- COVID Safe marshals will be present at each location.
